

End of Year 2 – Expected National Standard in Writing

Independent

Wk starting 13.6.2016

To write a story

Mr Wolf's pancakes

Mr Wolf was hungry so he decided to make some crunchy, yellow pancakes but he didn't know how. He asked the Gingerbread man if he could help him count his golden, silver money "No" he said loudly. Mr Wolf asked Chicken Licken if he could help him read his small, door recipe book "No" he shouted angrily. Next Mr Wolf asked Wee Willy Winky if he could ^{help} him write his shopping list "No" he screamed angrily. After that Mr Wolf asked Little Red Riding hood "Can I borrow your basket?" asked Mr Wolf "No" yelled Little Red Riding hood. Mr Wolf went to the shops because he needed ingredients for his delicious, yummy pancakes. He asked the Three Little Pigs "Please will you help me make some pancakes?" but they all said "No" very loudly. When the neighbours smelled the pancakes they knocked on his door angrily but Mr Wolf let them in and he gobbled his neighbours and the pancakes. How delicious that dinner was!